Toshiba Imaging Launches New Website with Camera Comparison Feature

March 31, 2015 – Irvine, CA – Toshiba America Information Systems, Inc.'s Imaging Systems Division, (www.toshibacameras.com), launches a newly designed website that is user-application driven and features a comprehensive camera comparison and selection tool for quick, side-by-side comparison of up to four Ultra HD and high-definition cameras at a time. The comparison function is accessible from each of the application pages, making it extremely easy for anyone to identify the appropriate camera(s) for a specific task.

Another intuitive web tool, the new Camera Quick Reference Guide, provides an indexed overview of all the cameras in Toshiba Imaging's family of products, with specifications and optional features. The new Quick Reference Guide makes it easy to compare camera features, output formats and capabilities. Detailed camera data is accessible directly from the Quick Reference Guide.

Toshiba Imaging's wide variety of HD and Ultra-HD camera configurations are ideal for scientific imaging, defense, live tissue imaging, process / quality control tasks, aviation and helicopter tourism, as well as broadcasting applications. All of Toshiba's Ultra HD and high-def cameras can be easily integrated into new and/or existing systems. For more information please visit the fully updated new website: www.toshibacameras.com, or call +1 810-357-5022.

Toshiba Imaging is a division of Toshiba America Information Systems, Inc., and a global leader in the manufacture of ultra-compact UltraHD, high definition (HD) and high resolution CMOS and CCD video cameras.
